F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS® Sales Associate Gretchen Scott Honored at Annual Awards Banquet

In every company, there is always someone who not only excels in his/her business endeavors but personifies excellence in community involvement. That person for F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS is Gretchen Scott. Gretchen has been awarded the Bud Tucker Award for 2010 at the F.C. Tucker annual awards ceremony held on February 10th in Indianapolis. The Bud Tucker Award is granted to one agent throughout the entire F.C. Tucker organization for exceptional commitment to community service. Gretchen consistently seeks out ways to make a positive impact in the Bloomington community. She is involved with the Sherwood Oaks' Hoosier Care program, Backstreet Mission, Monroe County Animal Shelter, and Jill's House. Gretchen chaired the BBOR Community Grant Committee and has partaken in mission trips in Romania, India, Jamaica, and Indian Reservations in our own Southwest. She was also the leading force behind Bloomington winning the prestigious 2010 America in Bloom (AIB) award which recognized the community of Bloomington as a great place to live, work, and visit. "We are so proud to be associated with Gretchen," said John West, managing broker of F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS®. She exemplifies the meaning of Giving Back to the Community which is part of our company mission."
